Tenor Volunteers for 'Street Fair and Circus' for Hospital.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 16.—Each day expands the scheme of the forthcoming "Street Fair and Circus" at Agawam Park on the afternoon and evening of July 30 for the Southampton Hospital. To-day the directing committee, of which Mrs. Albert Gallatin is G. Thatcher of Boston is to take place chairman and of which Mrs. Joseph R. to-day in the country home of Dilworth is a member, made an announcement that will serve to carry the interest in the event far beyond the amifications of all the Hamptons. The news is that Enrico Caruso, who recently joined Mrs. Caruso at their country place in Easthampton, has offered his services as a cartoonist.

While known to the world at large as the leading tenor of the time, Mr. Caruso of the American Embassy in Rome, and also has won a unique reputation as a Mrs. Gunther, are guests of Mr. and maker of caricatures, grotesque but Mrs. Franklin L. VEGETABLES GIVEN AWAY BY FARMERS

Market Overcrowded, but Retail Prices Stay High.

There was such an abundance of green produce at the farmers' markets in this city last week that the farmers had to virtually give it away, according to the weekly Farmer's Market Report issued yesterday by Dr. Eugene H Porter, State Commissioner of Foods and Markets. Vegetables of every variety were sold at sacrifice prices, the report said, and many of the farmers were forced to take their loads back nome, give them away or dump them Last Friday, in particular, the high cost of living fell into the cellar as regards vegetables, but New York was askep at the switch.

"Beets sold Friday for 2 cents bunch, carrots 1 to 1½ cents a bunch and lettuce from 40 to 50 cents a bar-rel," the report said. "Peas sold for 75 cents to $1 a barrel, radishes from 15 to 1 cents a bunch and spinach from 25 to 50 cents a crate. These low prices prevailed late in the morning, when farmers found themselves left with goods unsold. The early morning prices were somewhat higher.

"Even potatoes, which have been high for months, had dropped and could be bought at wholesale for $8.50 to $9 a One dealer at one of the farmbarrel. ers' markets offered to bet a suit of clothes that potatoes would go down to $5 a barrel in three weeks."

These conditions prevailed at Wallabout Market in Brooklyn and Ganse's voort and Hariem markets in Manhat tan. The best Long Island cabbage, which soared in price last winter, sold at the Brooklyn market for a penny s head. It was not until the farmers found that persons would not buy even Dudley Davis, Mrs. J. Tenants Want Dispossess Vacated, but Van Siclen Reserves Decision.

Edward A. Richards, formerly nunicipal court justice of Brooklyn, ap pearing yesterday in a rent case before Justice James C. Van Sicien of the Su preme Court in Brooklyn, charged that his former colleague, Justice Jacob S. Strahl, of the Fourth District Municipal Court, is a "menace to the community" because of his decisions in rent cases,

Richards sought a writ of prohibitio preventing Justice Strahl from interferng with a dispossess warrant directed against three tenants of Nathan and Israel Halperin, landlords of the house at 1292 St. John's place, Brooklyn. The tenants were charged with having failed to pay $35 rent due last July. The tenants contended that they tendered the money but that it was rejected, and asked Justice Strahl to vacate the discossess warrant. Commenting upon the requency and the manner in which he said Justice Strahl has acted in favor of fenants and against landlords, Richards

"Justice Strahl is peddling his power for public applause to such an extent that he is becoming a menace to this The remark was resented by Julius

Applebaum, representing the tenants. Justice Van Siclen-reserved decision Another tempestuous scene arising from landlord and tenant difficulties occurred yesterday in West Side Court and resulted in Justice Joseph & Corrigan drawing a charge of unlawful entry against a landlord's representaaccusing him of breaking into a tenant's apartment and destroying cour records of a decision in a former action
